

---

sustainable systems at work

---

A five-session discussion course for the workplace designed to further organizational sustainability issues.

In this course, participants will:

- * Evaluate the current economic model and consider the case for change
- * Examine the concept of sustainability from an organizational perspective
- * Evaluate principles and frameworks for guiding a vision
- * Identify tools and strategies for implementing a framework
- * Develop an action plan to advance organizational change

Presented by:

arkansas earth institute

Inspiring people to take responsibility for Earth

<http://arkansasearth.org/>

When:

Where:

For more info: